

The Black Dahlia Murder, Flies

down, start digging down your throat another string of lies is born you must exemplify perfection bronzing a broken life of shit

you filthy liar
septic tongue; shit-eating grin slow internal suicide
an inch within a trigger's pull again this disease, it is your mainstay it wears its wires within me tender tissues scraped away of secrets etched in nameless graves the smell of vomit hangs in the air tonight blush, eyeliner, lipstick it's all alright tonight

you filthy liar
septic tongue; shit-eating grin
love me with your yellowed smile my flies are hungry for your kiss poison me my darling

graves grow deeper with each passing day
this appalling love
bask in your putrid revelry beauty lost in between the lashes of sick drunken eye like a fool, you have believed life of shame, you have fallen completely beneath and when the curtains finally part, you'll see that everyone is laughing I am weakness, just like you I'll bury you before you're dead cockroach come crawling home! crawl!

slithering through this world of sculpted shit so thrust those fingers deep my child, it is your burden and your gift

septic tongue; shit-eating grin

poison me my darling
graves grow deeper with each passing day
this appalling love
bask in your putrid revelry!
