

The Black Halos, No Tomorrow Girls

I said "boy don't you be naive get off your knees that ain't no way to dance"

You see them walking down the street the queens of queens you'd love to meet but you know you ain't got a chance and you'd love to take one home but they'll leave you all alone they come and they go

they're no tomorrow girls

like chasing a sweet silhouette the closer you get the less you understand you see them dancing in a club they're drinking rye you're drunk on love

yesterday's a passing phase see them pass you by the future's shining brightly in their thighs
In their thighs
In your eyes

they live for rock'n'roll they're wild without control the only ones I know are no tomorrow girls
