

The Black League, Man's Ruin... Revisited!

Alright!

God bless me for my sins
God bless me for my evil deeds
For I've done wrong
Thank god for my disease
And praise the lord for my lurid needs
I fuckin' need'em!

I'm doin' fine!
I won't cross the line
Till I leave this living hell
It's man's ruin again
Man's ruin again!

God bless me for my wounds
God bless me for my scars as well
I'm goin; to hell babe!
There ain't no cure for my disease
Until I cease to exist
Well life's a bitch anyway

It's man's ruin again!
Man's ruin again!
