

The Blamed, At Least We Have Each Other

why do let yesterday consume you this is the day
the time for solutions
don't walk away
don't say a word
embrace her like you'll never see her again
don't walk away
all you want to know
is that he loves you
do you love each other
what does that mean
it's so hard
when all you have is no one else
