

The Bluetones, Unpainted Arizona

Monday; count all the teeth in my head.

Tuesday; anointed by a man in a dress.

Its more than just a question of time.

Its more a question of reason and a rhyme.

Wednesday; got hitched just like a good boy should.

Thursday and Friday didnt feel so good.

On Saturday I said my goodbyes.

On Sunday Im food for the worms and the flies.

Pack up your troubles now, take all you can carry.

On your way, your way, just remember this time, you know, youve only got seven days.

Its more than just a question of time.

Its more a question of reason and a rhyme.

Pack up your troubles now, take all you can carry.

On your way, your way, just remember this time, you know, youve only got seven days.
