

The BossHoss, Jos? And Myling

Same old story let me tell you folks about a girl that I once knew
Well in fact I still know her and hell she's been to school
Everybody sing uueee

Don't tell me I'm in the Picture
Wanna tell you 'bout my fellow from the real low skid row
His heart is bigger than his car
His eyes are brighter than the sun by far
Singing uueee

He asked her for a date and they sure got laid
Now they're living in harmony
She's queen, he's king and they're a winning team
Jos and sweet Myling

Jos and sweet little Myling
Singing and dancing and shaking their thing
Little Myling she's got a lot
Litte Myling don't you ever stop

Jos and sweet little Myling
Happy together don't care about a thing
Jos the handsome big man in town
Promised Myling to never let her down

One fine day a big truck hit town and agirl got out of the car
She was the cousin of a friend of Myling's oldest brother
And walked in to Jos's favorite bar
Singing uueee

He looked at her an he couldn't resist
And walked up to her for a little tounge twist
Her heart was beatin' like a drum
And her eyes are brighter than the sun by far
Singing uueee

Well he asked her for a date and they sure got laid
But he couldn't convince her to stay
He went back to his queen to the winning team
Jos and sweet Myling
