

The Bouncing Souls, Better Life

Wait the morning light to sneak up with the sunrise, last night was so long ago, where did the hours ago?
I saw the first daylight shining in your eyes,
you were mine and the world was ours.

Dreams of a better life can come true, It's all there in you.

Just like a break in the clouds when the sun come shining through, momentary glimpse of the divine sometimes when i look at you and everything just cancels out and for that moment there's no doubt

Dreams of a better life can come true, it's all there in you.

Sometimes a new day can bring a new beginning you took me to a place no time can erase.
Yesterday I was a loser, today I'm winning today you're mine and the world is ours.

Dreams of a better life can come true, It's all there in you
Dreams of a better life can come true, It's all there in you
