

The Bouncing Souls, K8 Is Great

I used to have home with a room and bed
a porch and a driveway with a big garage but i traded it in
I kept some faith and laid my head down every night and it seems so far away it seems so far away

chorus (x2)
remember me now cuz things
always change
5 long years have gone
i've done some time
sleeping where i fall
i know i'll never be the same

I learned somethings about the places i saw i learned somethings about myself i guess it came the hard way now i know what counts i've got one prayer
it's in your confidence i know all the places i don't want to be everyone's gone there'e no one just me

always change
5 long years have gone

remember me next time i go away for the first time in my life i wanna stay i can count one hand here today the only thing that matters to me anyway and it seems so far away

always change
