

The Bouncing Souls, Old School

Sing a song of old school I don't really care where you were or who you know sing a song of old school we don't really care what you have to say about this show the music you love lost it's meaning because these people are not aware some people talk others are listening sometimes I think I just don't care it's easy to forget the choices we've made and the promises of the past but if we really listen to these old school ideals we'll find what's good and make it last sing a song of old school everyone knows but it seems we all forget the time we needed to see these ideals for ourselves and what it meant I guess I'm on a soapbox singing a hymn that you don't want to hear no sermon when I step down and look around all I see is separation find what's good and make it last
