

The Bouncing Souls, The Messenger

This is a message to you a message to you

[Chorus]
I am a messenger
I'm passing a message to you
a messenger
I'm passing along words in a song
Yeah
Yeah

I was lost I was like tv a dead end road with no meaning love to be a kid with no worries it seems so hard oh it seems so hard
so hard to be free

I am a messenger
a messenger
I'm passing along words in a song
Yeah
Yeah

I see people looking just like me wandering on a dead end street somewhere somehow we lost a key to another place
away from this rat race let the music play
let the music play
it'll take your breath away

Whoahh
Whoahh

let all the people hear it let all the people feel it
let all the people hear it raise your voice (whoohh)
it's your choice
raise your voice (whoohh)
it's your choice

I am a messenger
I'm passing a message to you
a messenger
passing by this night
a messenger
I'm passing along words in a song
Yeah
Yeah

this is a message to you
do what you love
love what you do
what you love
