

The Bouncing Souls, The Whole Thing

Music sounds in my ear there are bricks for my view I hear the train pass and im sure that i miss you But i'll keep my head and i'll try and i know this will pass by and by I made some coffeen and i overheard the neighbors too sometimes they laugh sometimes they screw it all reminds me of you But i don't worry anyway, after all you are so far away Sometimes sadness feels happy sometimes sadness keeps my head. Sometimes it helps me to get by maybe i don't make no sense But i know this will pass by and by Now i know i'm gonna try and i know this will pass by and by
