

The Brat Attack, Beautifully Disastrous

Buildings burn the tables start to turn What goes up must come down in its death its hell bound If a skyscraper falls to the city ground no bureaucrats around does it still make a sound?
a sound....or could the crash be silent?
law of sound defiant.
lively death creative destruction organized chaos.
disordered system disassembled. rebuilt by us credit card business burning, disciplined like tyler durden every city every street corporation in defeat all begin to organize from inside out to destroy the lies if a skyscraper falls...
