

The Brat Attack, Just Like You

They look each other straight in the eye
They knew each other's stance was nothing but a lie
They don't know anything about the environment
Or a womyns right to chose
They just show up at the protests cause that's what their scene says is cool
I don't want to be like you.
Cause I got better things to do
There both relieved when the scene becomes a political
As the fascist infiltration begin, no seems to care
Because the music was about the political message
Now they are just a bunch of ignorant kids
