

The Brian Setzer Orchestra, The Man With The M

written by B. Setzer

Now some people got it and some people don't I'm talkin' 'bout gettin' all the things in life that you want
You can wish it might happen
You can call it dumb luck
But that guy's so lucky, he's just way much too much

He's the man with the magic touch
He's the man with the magic touch
Don't give me all that 'got lucky' such and such
He's the man with the magic touch

He won an all-expenses-paid vacation on a cruise ship 'round the world
And when he gets home, he don't bother lookin' for no girl
He's got a straight to the ace
He got a royal flush
Baby go rub his back for good luck

He's the man with the magic touch
He's the man with the magic touch
Don't give me all that 'got lucky' such and such
He's the man with the magic touch

He goes back to back, he goes hip to hip
He goes face to face, now here's the tip
If he don't want it
He throws it right back
He knows some poor sucker's gonna take up the slack

He's the man with the magic touch
He's the man with the magic touch
Don't give me all that 'got lucky' such and such
He's the man with the magic touch

My blood is percolatin'
I'm set for detonation
When it comes to good lovin'
He ain't hesitatin'
He's the man with the magic touch
