

The Browns, I'd Just Be Fool Enough (To Fall)

Oh please don't be so carelss with your glances
Don't look at me that way and breathe a sigh
Oh please don't get too close and let me love you cause I'd just be fool enough to try
It's not that I don't think I'm worthy of you but mem'ries from the past I still recall
Don't let me hold you in my arms and kiss you cause I'd just be fool enough to fall

Don't let me tell you how I've dreamed about you
And longed to have a love that I could share
Oh please don't let your eyes be so revealing cause I'd just be fool enough to care
It's not that I don't think...
