

The Business, Takers & Users

The judge turned to me as he threw away the key murder one murder one
your doing life my son

You have robbed
you have slaughtered
your going somewhere hot
your going straight to hell

Winners and losers
takers and users
saints and sinners
never had room for me
so sod off to you all

25 to life and I'm getting crucified
don't care what I've done I have loved the sunlight much as any man alive
will I see it again

I hear my father's voice calling down to me
he said you did a lot wrong
