

The Buzzcocks, Back With You

You help me sing my song
Now it's easy to carry on
And it won't be long before I'm back with you
I'm back with you

The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah

The difference between right and wrong
And those feelings seem so strong
And it won't be long before I'm back with you
I'm back with you

The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah

The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah

The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
The things you make me do, yeah
The things you make me do now
