

The Buzzcocks, In Love With Somebody Else

Everybody's coming to me
For some love oh yeah
I'm popular since you left me you see
All booked up oh yeah
But half of what I want I don't need
Cos you see
I'm in love with somebody else
With a dream whose passion's a dare
And I'm always so unaware

Crazy people coming to me
For their love oh yeah
Nothing's paid so they think it's free
So they think oh yeah
I bet they'll leave this ship if it sinks
They don't see
That they're in love with somebody else
With a dream whose passion's a dare
And they're all so so unaware

I used to think that you were my love
But now I know I was mistaken
But love is what I feel in heart
I may be lonely but I am not forsaken

One day I'll be coming to you
For my love oh yeah
You're the only one thoughts are of
All the time oh yeah
But don't take it to heart when you find
That it's true
That you're in love with somebody else
With a dream whose passion's a dare
And you're always so unaware

You're in love
In love
In love with somebody else

You're in love
In love
In love with somebody else

You're in love
In love
In love with somebody else

You're in love
In love
In love with somebody else
