

The Calling, Lost

I'm alone and feeling lost
If I could only have it all
Then I'd be alright
Cuz I can't see who I really am
Through all the doubt that I'm livin' in I don't know it, yeah
Right before I hit the ground

Why am I losing sleep?
Yeah, feelin' like I do
Why am I losing you?
And I'm feeling lost

There's a dark cloud over me
And I can't shake it off,
I can't make a move to save myself
Thoughts keep spinnin through my head
All the times that we never did what we wanted to, yeah
But right before I hit the ground
It's just like a dream

Why am I losing sleep?
Yeah, feelin like I do
Why am I losing you?
And I'm feeling lost

The distance grows
I'm sinkin' down
And what I lost, it can't be found
Although I try, can't find my way
Nothing's fallin into place

I'm alone, yeah
I'm feelin lost
I feel, I feel, yeah, it's just like a dream

Why am I losing sleep?
Yeah, feelin' like I do
Why am I losing you?
I'm lost, I'm lost, I'm lost

Why am I losing sleep?
Yeah, feelin like I do
Why am I losing you?
And I'm feeling lost
