The Carpenters, I Heard The Bell On Christmas I

I heard the bells on christmas day their old familiar carols play, and wild and Sweet the words repeat of peace on earth, good will to men.

I thought how, as the day had come, the belfries of all christendom had rolled Along th'un broken song of peace on earth, good will to men.

And in despair I bowed my head; " there is no peace on earth, " I said, " for hate

Is strong and mocks the song of peace on earth, good will to men."

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep; "god is not dead, nor doth he sleep; The wrong shall fail, the right prevail, with peace on earth, good will to men."

Till, ringing singing on it's way, the world revolved from night to day. a Voice, a chime, a chant sublime, of peace on earth, good will to men.
