

The Carpenters, Remember When Lovin' Took All

(John Farrar / Molly-Ann Leikin)

You're close enough to touch again
Where you should be
I'd love to think what your smile is leading to
I feel your eyes, starting a fire all over me
Oh baby you know, I know what your arms can do

(Say that you remember when)

Remember whe lovin' took all night
Remember the feelin' of doing it right
(Feeling right, my love)
It's been so wrong
(It's been so wrong baby)
You've been gone too long
Now it's gonna be all right
We'll take all night again tonight

And I think you know that missing you
Took all my time
Loneliness never ran so deep till then
Now here we are
Lost in a feelin' of feelin' good
Baby you know, I'll love you again and again

(Say that you remember when)

Remember when lovin' took all night
Remember the feelin' of doing it right
(Feeling right, my love)
It's been so wrong
(It's been so wrong baby)
You've been gone too long
Now it's gonna be all right

We'll take all night again tonight
