

The Cars, Tonight She Comes

i know tonight she comes she's taking a swipe at fun for sighting my sights
she jangles me up
she does it with ease
and sometimes she passes through me just like a breeze
she gives me a reason for feeling all right
i know tonight

i know she's gonna do it to me one more time
i know she's gonna stay implanted in my mind
why does she keep me hanging on the line (repeat)

i know the way she feels and all of the hearts that she steals she tells me it's easy
when you do it right
i know tonight
well, i know tonight
tonight she comes
