

The Chainsmokers, Break Up Every Night

She wants to break up every night /2x
Don't wanna wait until she finally decides to feel it
She wants to break up every night
Then tries to fuc* me back to life
I cannot help it if like the way she makes me feel it

- Give me time
- Give me space
- Give me a reason
That's what you tell me when you're leaving
Change your mind every night like the seasons
You're insatiable

She wants to break up every night /2x
Don't wanna wait until she finally decides to feel it
She wants to break up every night
Then tries to fuc* me back to life
I cannot help it if like the way she makes me feel it

Been to France one time
And you're Parisian
Joined the real world
Noe season
Check my phone
Check my pulse
Ain't a reason?
I kinda love it thought

And I know you say you want it now
Give me the runaround
Which one am I with now?
She's got 7 personalities
Every one's a tragedy

She wants to break up every night /2x
Don't wanna wait until she finally decides to feel it
She wants to break up every night
Then tries to fuc* me back to life
I cannot help it if like the way she makes me feel it

So I build the bridges
The bridges
/4x

She wants to break up every night /2x
Don't wanna wait until she finally decides to feel it
She wants to break up every night
Then tries to fuc* me back to life
I cannot help it if like the way she makes me feel it
