

The Chainsmokers & Illenium, Take Away

your heart for away
your heart for away

hey hey hey
where do you think you're going?
it's so late, late late what's wrong?
I said:
I can't stay, do I have to give a reason?
it just ai't , ain't ain't what I want?

so how did we get here
feelings wrapped
I been so caught up better if we do this on our own

before I love you
I am gonna leave you before I am someone you leave behind I will break your heart so you don't break mine
before I love you
I am gonna leave you
even if I am not here to stay
I still want your heart
