

The Chainsmokers, My Type (ft. Emily Warren)

You don't gotta say it
I know you ain't staying over
And I won't even mention the fact that you're never sober
I never know which side I'm gonna get tonight

But you're just my type
The kind that only calls me late at night
You can't decide if you'll be yours or mine
I hate to say it, but you're just my type
Yes, you're my type

Just my type /4x

And I'm fooling myself
Coz I know that I'll never change you
But you told me the truth
So I guess I can't really blame you
No, you're not the one
But you're all I want
People say I'll get hurt
I don't know what they're so afraid of

But you're just my type
The kind that only calls me late at night
You can't decide if you'll be yours or mine
I hate to say it, but you're just my type
Yes, you're my type

Just my type /4x
