

The Chainsmokers, NGHTMRE, Save Yourself

I should have known what I started you should know where your heart is but I don't, I won't be a part of expectations when I grew up so call it what you call it but I just won't be afraid of myself cause i know what I got it I won't give it up just to save myself

I hit it till it's hollow it's your pride, you should swallow but I am not, I am not one to follow I won't explain all the things I love

so call it what you call it
but I just won't be afraid of myself
cause i know what I got it
I won't give it up just to save myself
