

The Chainsmokers, Side Effects (ft. Emily Warren)

it's 44 m I don't know where to go everywhere so closed I hold just go home

my feet are taking me are taking me to your front door oi know I shouldn't though heaven only knows

that ooh the side effect yo my loneliness is you ohh you're all that I want

no good AT GIVNG YOU UP C'MON AND GIMME SOME Love tonight

ohh you're all that I want

this happens every time I try to mix decisions making with one too many drinks

ohh you're all that I want

ohh I think about it all ythe time make it happen in my mind I;m telling you

ohh you're all that I want

time should've taught me the lesson Went looking for a sign but instead I got a message I take of my pride every time we understanding I draw the line
I'm out of line
