

The Chainsmokers, The One

You know I'm sorry
I won't make it to your party
Got caught up in my own selfishness
It won't let me be a part of this
And I know I've started drifting off every second
I can't wait to leave as soon as I arrive
I count the seconds

Down and down we go
We'll torch this place we know
Before one of us takes a chance
And breaks this
I won't be the one
No, I won't be the one

I know it's pathetic
Fuck it – yeah! I said it!
Tried to tell it like it is
There's a chance that I'll regret it
So, let's go, let's end this
I delete before I send it
And we can play pretend
Like we haven't reached the end yet

Down and down we go
We'll torch this place we know
Before one of us takes a chance
And breaks this
I won't be the one
No, I won't be the one

You know, I'm sorry
I'm sorry
NO, I won't be the one /2x
