

The Chameleons UK, Endlessly Falling

Talk about the state of things
I don't know what they mean
If you keep your mind intact
Surely that's a victory
Surely that's a victory

Falling, i am falling again
Falling, i am endlessly falling
Constantly Falling my friend

Your wealth and your kingdom and your crown
Lies bwtween your thighs
Along with his spheres of thought
Oh, come let us adore him, maybe we should mourn him

Falling, i am falling again
Falling, i am endlessly falling
Constantly Falling my friend

Your ego is your closest friend
Never lets you down
The hunter and the predator
But you are just a victim, you are just a victim.
Along with his fears
