

The Church, Seen It Coming

Hey man, think it through now
Why don't you stay for a while
Eve and Aurora gonna come on over
Know they're gonna make make you smile
And cool your heels
I know just how it feels

You should've seen it coming
Been coming for some time
You've got your broken heart
And I've got mine

Yeah, she said it's over
But it was over right from the start
You ain't gonna tell me that you were a saint
Every time you two were apart
You blew your chance
So face the music and dance

You should've seen it coming
Been coming for some time
You've got your broken heart
I've got mine

You've got your broken heart
I've got mine

...some time
You've got your broken heart
And I feel fine (feel so fine)
Talk about it (feel so fine)
