

The Classic Crime, The End

Call me a liar, call me your friend.
I will let you down again
'Cause I'm a disaster of epic proportions.
I know this is the end
I am not worthy to be called your savior
I am not going to catch all your blame

but to warn you some may fall on my name
"How could you do this to all your believers?
How could you do this to all your friends?
You know this is the end!"
I know this is the end.
I know this is the end.
