

The Connells, Brighter Worlds

Tell them, won't you tell them? I know, don't you know?
What awaits the chosen. I know, I know, don't you know?
Then I close my eyes and I feel fine.

Chorus:

Tell them, won't you tell them? I know, don't you know?
And I can go, can you?
And I can go, can you?

Tell them, won't you tell them? I know, don't you know?
Brighter worlds await them. I know, don't you know?
Then I, I follow blind, and I feel fine.

(repeat chorus)

We can go so far from here.
And you can go so far from here.

Tell them, won't you tell them? I know, don't you know?
What awaits the chosen. I know, don't you know?
Then I close my eyes and I feel fine.

(repeat chorus)

We can go so far from here.
And you can go so far from here.
