

The Connells, Glade

Anyday, your gonna to throw it all away see you got it just throw away now here you wind
how its coming in from all sides you got it coming riding in on you
this is what we should do

lets go to boy island
book a passage
for a few days in sun
waiting and watching for girls to come

waiting, watching

You know
you came up with it too long ago
see it happened
so long ago
how could you know

waiting and watch for girls to come

waiting, watching for girls to come
waiting, watching

Everyday
you've got to throw it all away see you got it, just throw it away that's what I might say lets run to boy island

just like mary waits in the sun

waiting, watching

Boy, oh boy...
