The Connells, Sal

Hey there Sal, you sure are crazy And boy you love to have a ball Must be great with all the ladies Watch it Sal, don't you fall.

Chorus:

You can cry like a loser, like a clown But it doesn't seem to help at all Oh, you and I aren't used to what we've found Love like rain will fall.

She left you but you still love her You thought she was the easy part She smelled a lie and the luck of the winner Left you standing in the dark

(repeat chorus)

For a day or two you're feeling dizzy For a day there's no alcohol But tonight you're dancing the song of the sinner Tonight you'll seem to have it all.

(repeat chorus)
