

The Cool Kids, What Up Man

[Mikey:]

So I woke up this morning,
And as I start yawning that,
MILK MILK
Poring into my bones,
So I thought to myself,
THOUGHT THOUGHT TO MYSELF,
That I need to take a trip to the grocery store,
Cause the bread is low,
And the chicken I was eating with the mashed patatos needs a,
LITTLE BIT OF GOLD,
Oops wrong song,
Lyric man a little bit of pepper,
Step out the crib with the bear claw slippers,
Robe tied tight chest no chest hair,
No clothes at first so I got to get bare,
Cause it's like 3:50 and I'm just waking up, (yea)
And it takes like five minutes just to get to the front,
Now I'm standing in long lines, lady with the baby probably buying some dog food,
Dog probably crazy on a daily basis,
My days b e like this,
Cause I got to the regester and the the dor closed.

[Chorus:]

Yo what up man?
If you cool what you do?
Warm it up than,
I can't hold it cause it's hot,
Put it down then,
I left my kids in daycare
Pick em up then
I'm trying to buy some new shit,
What you trying to spend?
All I got is five dollars,
So you broke man?
I thought I had ten dollars,
So you broke then,
TV dinner on the counter warm it up then
Warm it up man,
Warm it up.

[Chucky:]

Ayo come,
Get some,
You little bums;
I got a lot and you can't get none,
That ice cream truck just left, if you run,
You can catch but it's out, cause I got the last one
But I got a box of cones that I'm willing to sell,
I sell the ice cream too,
Two scoops for a bill,
I can build a sand castle without bringing a pale,
And go cat fish fish and then come up with a whale,
But but you know what that was easy as hell,
Well maybe not the line about me catching a whale,
But if I did it then it's noting and I did it as well,
Probably easy as it is to move slow for a snail,
Did you know I made this beat with my mouth and a bell?
Just a F.Y.I.
I'm F.L.Y.
And for those who can't spell I'm a pretty swell guy
I caught a lot of fish I think I'll have a fish fry.

[Chorus]
