

The Cooper Temple Clause, Screwdriver Song

Won't you please before you leave
Promise me you'll take my side
Its all I have to give
Heaven knows its all I've got

To be blind to the world is worth the loss
But I will see you still
From time to time

Goodbye old friend, sleep tight
Sweet dreams fall on time my friend
Nothing can hurt you now
We'll share a drink in time
When all the shadow chasers have gone
