

The Coral, Another Turn In The Lock

When we first met I held you in the moonlight
Then you went and vanished into the night
Have you ever felt this lonely feeling
It's not real to me i'm only dreaming

With the thoughts I sleep
Before the tears there'll be
Another turn in the lock

When you read the message I gave you
You found out that I was out to save you
When I read your reply I felt sad
Then I knew there was no chance of you coming back

With the thoughts I sleep
Before the tears there'll be
Another turn in the lock

From time to time I read the words you sent me
How can you know freedom when you've never been free
Then the tears start gathering in my eyes
Tomorrow is a new day it's gonna be alright

With the thoughts I sleep
Before the tears there'll be
Another turn
Another turn
Another turn
Another turn in the lock
