

The Coral, Secret Kiss

A secret kiss,
Reminded me of what I miss,
Some kind of forgotten bliss,
On this summers eve,
Though the seasons deceive.
Corrupt my honesty,
You still make me believe,
Is this the rock,
That your daring me to cross,
Down the river to the docks,
That's where we'll meet,
Where the bayline(?) creeps(?)
Into her majesty
You still make me believe

So far away (so far away)
So far away (so far away)
Can't get away (so far away)
So far away
But that's alright
But that's alright

Jewels and pearls,
And all the wonders of the world,
Mean nothing until I return,
In time for tea,
Sit on my settee,
Lost in my memories,
You still make me believe,
You make me believe,
You make me believe,
You make me believe
