

The Creatures, You!

When my ups are down, when my downs are up -
I want you!
Feeling inside out, from the outside in -
I want you!

On the silver screen, in a magazine -
I see you!
Through the telephone or a megaphone -
I want you!

Assuring... confusing...
I see you!
In saintly reverence, or wicked decadence -
I want you!

When the days just yawn, when the nights are long -
I want you!
In a coo-coo tone, then I shout it home -
I want you!
