

The Creepshow, Grave Diggers

We're diggin' down!
We're diggin' down!
Last night you had a bad dream
Sometimes the night is more real than it seems
Don't make a sound
The reaper is coming to town!
Your life ain't as long as you think
The darkness will stake you then buy you a drink
You're dead and gone
The reaper is singin' your song!
No more runnin'.
Down, we're diggin' down (we're diggin' down)!
Digging for the souls that his evil brought to town
Down, we're diggin' down (we're diggin' down)!
Following his lead, diggin' six feet underground
He's chose it's over for you
Hunting you down he'll be seeing you soon
Don't make a sound the reaper is coming to town!
Your time is up and your dues have been payed
Your lights will go out with the swing of his blade,
You're dead and gone the reaper is singin' your song
No more runnin'!
Down, we're diggin' down (we're diggin' down)!
Digging for the souls that his evil brought to town
Down, we're diggin' down (we're diggin' down)!
Following his lead, diggin' six feet underground (six feet down)
We're diggin' down
Down, we're diggin' down (we're diggin' down)!
Digging for the souls that his evil brought to town
Down, we're diggin' down (we're diggin' down)!
Following his lead, diggin' six feet underground
No more runnin'
We're diggin' down!
