

The Cross, Put It All Down

Well Looky over here - coming down the street
It's long face Sally - the saddest girl to meet
She's got all the worlds problems - she carries all our sins
Oh but wait a minute Sally - you gotta mile otta
Put it all down to love
You better
Put it all down to love
Do my eyes deceive? - on the other side
Oh it's my pal Joey - the greatest man alive
He's clown he's a joker - he'll bring you down to your knees
Ah but wait a minute Joey - what are these tears I see?
He gotta reason to cry today
He had lover but she's gone away
Put it all down to love
You know you really gotta
Put it all down to love
Put it all down to love
Love's the reason for all things we do
Love's the reason I'm not over you
I'll be the golden bullet in your genetic gun
So look out baby here I come here I come!
She's got something to smile about
She found a lover and wants to shout
Put it all down to love
Put it all down to love
Put it all down to love
