The Cure, Birdmad Girl

This girl has got a smile That can make me cry This girl just burns with love She's burning burning deep inside

Nighttime nighttime Sets my house on fire I'll turn into the melting man I'll lose my life To feel I feel desire

Oh I should feel Like a polar bear... It's impossible

She flies outside this cage Singing girlmad words I keep her dark thoughts deep inside As black as stone And mad as birds

Wild wild wild And never turn away Sends me all her love She sends me everything She sends me everywhere

Oh I could be A polar bear... But it's impossible

I try to talk The sky goes red I forget So fill in my head With some of this Some of that Some of every word she says

Oh I should be A polar bear... But it's impossible
