

The Damned, Melody Lee

Melody Lee, a broken mind and a broken dream

I bust the speed to change your heart

Your life was cruel they called it art

Melody Lee, you need a mirror to set you free

It won't be kinda cheap tomorrow

If you hide any sorrow

Melody Lee, you gotta find your secret enemy

You're on the road with nowhere to go

If you die someone to know

Forget your heart, you need not stay

A second longer than today
