

The Damned, Noise, Noise, Noise

At 7am on a brand new day

I'm gonna start it in the perfect way

Put the greatest record on

I kick the dog, I kick the cat

Insult my mum insult my dad

Sing out loud and sing along

(chorus)

We say noise is for heroes (heroes)

Leave the music for zeroes (zeroes)

Noise Noise Noise is for heroes (heroes)

Oh yeah

I'm down the pub and the time is one

Hit the jukebox for my favourite song

Gonna turn it up too loud

Have a couple of games of pool

Argue with a drunken fool

Have a beer with the usual crowd

(chorus)

Its noise that makes the world go round

I can't survive without that sound

The sound torments me

Its 8 o'clock down the church hall

I've enough amplifiers 6 feet tall

Gonna turn them up full blast

The vicar waves his arms and looks absurd

The noise drowns out his godly words

And he can't get out too fast

(chorus)

Noise Noise Noise (x7)
