

The Damned, Psychomania

Psychomania, Psychomania

She is the substance of my dreams

A spectre in the wind

Take my dare, take me there

On the trail of the jewel trail

If you've got a notion

Like a bullet set in motion

Shining chrome shiny leather

Penetrate the night forever

Psychomania, Psychomania

The pleasure of the beast

Cursing through our veins

Burn the night burn the day

A burning light on our a mounlight flight

Everything blurs in the shadow

Straight and true shot like an arrow

Tales of love tales of terror

Ghost-riders go hell for leather

Psychomania, drives me crazier

Psychomania

Psychomania

Everything blurs in the shadow

Straight and true shot like an arrow

Tales of love tales of terror

Ghost-riders go hell for leather

Streak the night with our burning flight

Crimson eyes that blur in the twilight

Psychomania, drives me crazier

Psychomania, drives me crazier

Everything blurs in the shadow

Straight and true shot like an arrow

Like a spectre in the wind

She is the substance of my dreams

Psychomania, drives me crazier
