

The Damned, Twisted Nerve

i hear cries and whispers in the night but i know that i was in the right hear footsteps echo behind me as i walk people listening when i talk chorus :

no room for error no room for mistakes no time for friends it's for your own sake it's for your own sake go to the window and what do i see ?
killers face looking at me
go to the window and what do i see ? no room for feelings careless talk costs lives cold as the cold war front the red star life
i see faces when there's no-one there memories that,i don't need to share repeat chorus go to the window,what do i see go to the window
the killer is me
it's meeeeeeeeeee

(whispers :)
twist and turn,twist and turn,twist and turn
