

The Damned, Your Eyes

(chorus)

twas your eyes that confuse me was your eyes that use me

I miss your very eyes

I miss your smooth white lies pass me a cigarette

maybe I can't forget...

(chorus)

give me another drink

that honey I can sink

all of these memories

that I can't get out of mind

(chorus)

you won't have to look far

i'm in the nearest bar

I feel so very concerned

i'm feeling so very old without

(1st verse)
