

The Darkness, I Hate Myself

There goes the best thing that ever happened to anyone
There goes a little miss forever and a day
There goes a girl I was incredibly cruel to
I thought that she was in my way
The girl I adore
She don't wanna know me any more

I hate myself I hate myself I do
I hate myself so you don't have to
I hate myself I hate myself I do
I hate myself so you don't have to

There goes the best 7 years of my life
There goes a girl who only saw me, not my influence or my wealth
There goes the only human being I have ever loved more than I hate myself
Well I am sure
She don't wanna know me any more

I hate myself I hate myself I do
I hate myself so you don't have to
I hate myself I hate myself I do
I hate myself so you don't have to

There goes the last of my inspiration
Here comes the pain
I endure
Cos she don't wanna know me any more

I hate myself I hate myself I do
I hate myself so you don't have to
I hate myself I hate myself I do
I hate myself so you don't have to
