The Darkness, Knockers

Oh lord, I'm so bored Living on my own You're devilish and dirty They say your pushing thirty Well pushing thirty stone

Oh Christ, I'm enticed I want you in my sack Your potty mouth is pushy You're anything but classy I've just got to get you back

It's been a while, Since I've seen that smile Is the old magic still there?

(CHORUS)

I just love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! I just love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! Oh!

Oh crumbs, I'm all thumbs Lying here with you You're beautiful and busty But I'm a little rusty I've forgotten what to do

It's been a while Since I made you smile Is the old magic still there?

(CHORUS)

I just love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! I just love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! Oh yeah!

(PIANO & amp; GUITAR SOLOS)

I love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! I really love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! I love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah! I really love what you've done with your hair...oh yeah!
