

The Darlings, Street Gang

Hear the call of the pack tonight sworn in for the rest of your life Broken bones and broken pride since my world began A vicious rouge twenty six years young speak evil with a poison tongue Feel the stain of the desolate ones rush across the land There's no good in this I know a spirit broken down now built up bold This long dark road is all I've ever known Like the warriors heart the drum beats on and on This long dark road cuts through flesh and bone
I can't change for the world
it's all i know
The engines dead on this train we ride that takes us out of the criminal life Bad blood fills the street tonight mass hysteria
The old hoodlum with his scars embraced sings the song of his old street gang Tells the story's of the righteous and fake and the warriors
